

Hornet Sailing Club and Royal Institute of Navigation

“Sharing the Seas Safely”

2nd October 2010

Venue
Hornet Sailing Club
Haslar Road
Gosport

The prime purpose of the workshop is to consider the challenges facing the users of confined and coastal waters in the digital era, in particular at the “big ship – small craft” interface.

1400 - “Welcome to Hornet Sailing Club” - Cdre Peter Melson CBE RN

1405 - Introduction - Captain Richard Yeomans FRIN - RIN Solent Branch Chairman

1410 - “A view from the bridge” - Capt R J Wild FRIN. MNI

1445 - “Living with fishing boats” - Cdr Cedric Loughran RD CEng MSc RNR.

1510 - “The role of Trinity House in the digital era” - Cdre Peter Melson CBE RN

1540 - Questions and panel - Chaired by Lt Cdr John Bazley MA FRIN RN.

1600 - Tea Break

1620 - “The role of the MAIB and lessons from recent accidents” - Capt Michael Evans MRIN

1655 - “Sharing the waters safely - a Solent perspective” - Capt William Hargreaves Msc FRIN MNI

1730 - Questions and panel.

1800 - Conclusion - Captain Richard Yeomans RN

The fee for taking part is £10 per head.

To book – complete attached application form.

Closing date - 27th Sept or sooner if fully booked.